CPLS VISION

Cair Paravel - Latin School aspires to become the premier classical Christian, liberal arts school in America.

CPLS MISSION

To cultivate classically trained, life long learners, committed to the Lordship of Jesus Christ, who will enrich their community and God's kingdom.

FROM THE DEAN'S DESK...

We are very excited to have Andrew Pudewa, the founder and director of the Institute for Excellence in Writing, as our Eighth Annual Aslan Lecture Series speaker on January 15th. This is a meeting for parents and students that you will not want to miss. Mr. Pudewa's topic will be Nurturing Competent Communicators -The Two Most Critical Components. This seminar will be an excellent resource for you as you strive to raise your children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Several of our faculty have sat under Mr. Pudewa's tutelage, and we currently use many elements of his Excellence in Writing program in our school.

On that Monday, our faculty will be trained by Mr. Pudewa during in-service in an effort to become even better acquainted with Excellence in Writing principles. Hopefully, you will begin to see even more fruit manifested in your children's writing in the days, weeks and years to come.

On Tuesday, January 16th, our school is hosting Mr. Pudewa as he will conduct a workshop for high school students who desire expert instruction on writing essays for standardized tests in timed environments. Please note the brochures that are attached. Your child is welcome to register and attend this workshop. Those who are on the brink of taking the ACT and SAT examinations would, of course, benefit the most. Understand that school classes will be conducted as normal, so this is a choice that you and your child need to weigh appropriately.

We are excited that Cair Paravel has this opportunity to serve the community and surrounding schools as the host venue.

PTF PURCHASES NEW DRINKING FOUNTAINS FOR SCHOOL

Students at CPLS are now enjoying 2 new drinking fountains that were provided by the PTF. The new drinking fountains are located near the library on the 1st floor and the east end of the hall on the second floor. They replaced two drinking fountains that have not worked for some time. The PTF used part of the funds from their Innisbrook Fundraising project they conducted earlier in the fall. We as teachers, staff, students and administration truly appreciate the hard work and the generosity of our PTF organization. We also appreciate those who support their fund raising activities.

John McFarland
Chief Administrator

“LITTLE WOMEN” PHOTO CD’S AVAILABLE

Photo CD’s are now available for the casts of “Little Women.” The CD’s will be available in the school office for $3.00 each. There are separate CD’s for each cast. Make checks payable to Colleen Lippe. Call Colleen with questions.

LIONS' ROAR

CPLS 8th graders enjoyed an evening of song, dance, poetry and performances at the annual 8th Grade Victorian Ball held at the Governor's Row House on Friday, December 15th. The 8th graders celebrated the evening with their parents, performing individual and group instrumental, choral and choric selections as well as Victorian ballroom dancing..

CPLS PTF EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETING OCTOBER 20, 2006, 1:30 PM AT CPLS DAYCARE HOUSE

Members present: Tammy Anderson, Shari Albrecht, John McFarland, Lynn DeGroff, Sandra Fienhage, Edey Freund, Jaye Conner, Maureen Koopman, Darla Hass and Cindy Cox.

Tammy called the meeting to order and Lynn opened in prayer.

The minutes from the following meetings were read: September 15, 2006 executive committee meeting; September 15, 2006 open meeting; and September 26, 2006 special meeting of the executive committee. Approval of these minutes was postponed until the next meeting with the request that the name of the person who made each motion be included in the official minutes.

Treasurer's Report- Jaye Conner

Financial reports are now being generated from QuickBooks. The committee reviewed several different reports. Jaye is in the process of narrowing down which ones will be most useful to PTF and hopes to have that decided by the next meeting. Total cash on hand is $22467.03. After holding out money for budgeted items and restricted funds, the total cash available is $4420.67.

There was discussion regarding what funding is available for the Christmas store. A review of the reports showed that $688.78 was carried over from the 2005-06 fiscal year and is available to be spent on Christmas store 2006. In addition, per decisions made at previous PTF meetings, the $1500.00 from this year's fiscal budget is available to make purchases for the 2007 Christmas store. Purchases for the following year's store usually take place during after Christmas sales. The treasurer's report was filed.

President-Elect – Edey Freund

A report on wish list purchases was presented. There are still requests pending that may fall under the school's curriculum budget and approval policy. Edey will continue to follow up on those requests.

School Administrator – John McFarland

Unfinished business items were addressed. A projector and laptop were purchased through the school's budget and this request no longer needs to be considered by PTF. In regard to lockers, the previously owned lockers are no longer available.

Board of Directors Liaison-Shari Albrecht

Shari spoke regarding the CPLS board's budget procedures. The line titled 'PTF classroom parties' was eliminated during an executive session. Executive sessions are confidential thus the reason why PTF was not aware of this change until recently. History of classroom party funds was discussed. Approximately 10-15 years ago, the school began collecting $4 per Kindergarten – 8th grade student from the June tuition payment. This amount was then given to PTF, who divided the money according to the number of students per class and turned it over to the head room mom or teacher. PTF did not fund these parties; they simply funneled the collected money. Likewise, CPLS collected $1 per K-12th grade student from the June tuition and again, gave it to PTF. PTF was then responsible for managing this money to provide teacher/staff luncheons 2 or 3 in-service days each year. Since this money is no longer available, how is PTF's role going to change? Who will communicate the change to K-8th teachers regarding the loss of these funds? Tammy asked Shari to request that this issue be placed on the CPLS Board's agenda November 20, 2006 to help clarify responsibilities.

Fundraising Coordinator- Cindy Cox

Delivery of Innisbrook orders took place Wednesday, October 18th and things went smoothly. Next Monday will be the day she will submit any corrections to orders that are needed. This year when orders were turned in by the students, PTF processed the money and then sent the order forms to Innisbrook. Their system at the plant was responsible for totaling the individual forms. This also went smoothly and saved volunteer hours. Innisbrook records indicate PTF's profit to be $8228.05, which includes internet orders and bonuses for our contract renewal with them.

Upper School Representative- Maureen Koopman

Prayer was requested for upcoming high school events. There was discussion on the December responsibilities of the upper school representative.

Family Activities Coordinator- Lynn DeGroff

Lynn still has a 9 x 13 pan that was left at the Back to School party. There was discussion on having a CPLS night at Cici's pizza for the purpose of promoting school fellowship. Lynn will look into scheduling a time.

Unfinished business

Request for lockers: Request was tabled pending further research. Jaye will be looking at possibilities on EBay.

Water fountain repair or replacement: Replacement cost per unit is approximately $500 without labor. Three fountains are known to have problems. These units are by the boy's upstairs bathroom, the girl's downstairs bathroom and the kitchen. Tammy will indicate to a member of the CPLS facilities committee that PTF is interested in helping with repair or replacement of these fountains but needs direction on how to proceed with this process.

Teacher/staff appreciation luncheons: As addressed under the Board of Director's report, funding from the June tuition payment no longer exists for these events. Shari will ask the board to address who they want to fund and coordinate these luncheons from this point forward.

Playground rules sign: A 3 foot by 2 foot sign will cost approximately $100. There was discussion on how to condense the rules from policy #51 in the CPLS staff handbook. It was decided that PTF will purchase a sign for the playground if lower school teachers will help condense these rules and if Mr. McFarland approves the condensed version. Sandra moved to spend up to $100 for the sign. Edey seconded the motion. Motion passed.

New business

Kitchen's request for a microwave to replace the broken one in the student lunchroom: There was discussion that any microwave purchased should be similar to the old one so it will be easy for students to adjust to. Edey moved to spend up to $80 to purchase a new microwave. Jaye seconded the motion. Motion passed. Tammy A. will purchase.

Shari moved to provide a $100 gift per semester to CPLS daycare for use of storage room. Edey seconded motion. Motion passed.

Lynn volunteered to restock the treasure chest. It is used in lower school convocations to reward students who get "caught" doing good. $150 was approved for this budget category at PTF's September general meeting.

Meeting adjourned at 3:30.

Respectfully submitted,

Sandra Fienhage, acting secretary

January 15, 2007

7:00 PM, Stone Table Theater

Join us for a presentation by Mr. Andrew Pudewa

founder of the Institute for Excellence in Writing and creator of the "Excellence in Writing" Program used at Cair Paravel-Latin School. Mr. Pudewa will give an evening presentation for the faculty, families, and friends of Cair Paravel-Latin School entitled:

Nurturing Confident Communicators

Many parents and teachers assume that good readers will automatically become good writers as they progress through school. Others think that writing talent is just a natural ability-some have it others don't. Both are myths. History and observation show very clearly how good writers have developed, and what are the two most critical things parents and teachers can do to nurture a high level of aptitude - from a young age through high school.

With humor and insight, Andrew will share the two easy but unbelievably powerful things that must be done at home & in the classroom to create competent communicators.

Plan to attend this informative and free event on January 15th.

High School Essay Prep

with

Andrew Pudewa

A one-day seminar for high school age students and teachers.

Tuesday, January 16, 2007
(8:45 – 3:30pm)

Cair Paravel-Latin School
635 SW Clay Street, Topeka, KS

Cost: $50.00/participant
(Parents may audit, space available)

The High School Essay Prep seminar is an excellent way to get immediate experience and inside tips on how to do your best on the timed, 25 minute response to a prompt required on the new SAT test. Participants will actually write two full essays, carefully study and then apply the College Board evaluation criteria to sample essays, while receiving a detailed booklet of resources and lesson plans for continued practice.

Additionally, students will learn special structure and style tools for use in composing the college application “personal essay” - an entirely different type of writing task. The complete process will be presented: choosing the question, creating the outline, and polishing a final version. Participants will leave with a clear concept of the task, their own outline for an actual personal essay, and several new tricks and techniques to add to their repertoire.

Although this seminar is specifically designed for those who will be taking the SAT or submitting college applications within the next 1-2 years (and especially those teaching such students), it is also useful for general writing practice, tools and tips. It is open to all students, regardless of their experience with IFEW courses or materials. A lot of actual writing is done during this six-hour class.

Here are some comments from past attendees in Alaska and California:

“I really didn’t want to come, but my mom made me, and I am soooo glad I did. It’s really going to help me, and I’m not so worried about the SAT essay any more.”

“I took the SAT last spring and did okay, but I’m going to do it again and go for a better score. With this new information, I’m very sure I’ll do better on the essay portion.”

“Mr. Pudewa’s seminar is like the rock concert of writing classes.”

“This workshop just de-mystified the whole thing for me. Thanks!”

“Although I’ve been in many of your classes before, this was awesome. I especially loved the strategies for quickly planning and outlining a short essay, and the advice about how to formulate an opinion and just go for it, even if you’re a little undecided about the question. Also the TRIAC paragraph model is awesome—it makes it so easy to organize a good paragraph.”

“Really glad I came. I learned a lot. (And I got out of school, too!)”

“I came to be with my son, but I actually had a lot of fun myself. I sure wish I knew some of this when I was going into college!”

Andrew Pudewa is the director of the Institute for Excellence in Writing and a homeschooling father of seven. Presenting throughout North America, he addresses issues relating to teaching, writing, thinking, spelling, and music with clarity, insight, practical experience, and humor. His seminars for parents, students and teachers have helped transform many a reluctant writer and have equipped educators with powerful tools to dramatically improve students’ skills.

Although he is a graduate of the Talent Education Institute in Japan and holds a Certificate of Child Brain Development from the Institute for the Achievement of Human Potential in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, his best endorsement is from a young Alaskan boy who called him “the funny man with the wonderful words.” He and his wife Robin currently teach their four youngest children at home in Atascadero, California.
