

PASTOR APPRECIATION DAY
MONDAY, JANUARY 14

CPLS will be hosting Pastor Appreciation Day on Monday, January 14th here at the school. This is time for CPLS to thank those who play such an important role in the spiritual development of our children.

It is also a time for the pastors, deacons, youth leaders, etc... to come and see what a great place CPLS is and how we can work together.

We have sent out formal invitations to each church, however, we encourage families to extend a personal invitation to your pastor, priest, youth leader or others on your church staff you would like to see included in this event.

BOARD NOMINATIONS BEING ACCEPTED

The Nominating Committee is currently accepting applications from persons who desire to serve on the CPLS Board of Directors. Three board positions will become open in May of 2008 for a three-year term. If the Lord may be calling you to serve in this way, please pick up an application from the office and return it by January 15, 2008, to any committee member: John Bernard, Kim Coker, Kathryn Gardner, John Martin, Chris Stewart, Ken Stone or Steve Zurbuchen.

Qualifications are stated in the CPLS Constitution and Bylaws, also available in the office.

Aslan Lecture Series

Monday, January 21, 2008, 7:00pm

Featuring: Dr. James Taylor, "Poetic Knowledge: The Recovery of Education"

Dr. Taylor is a graduate of the Integrated Humanities Program at Kansas University, and former Chair of Education at Hillsdale College and a teacher of English and American Literature, Humanities, Western Civilization, and Philosophy of Education, for over twenty years. He will discuss the loss of "Poetic Knowledge" in the world of education today and how we may recover that traditional mode of education that is still viable today.

Free and open to the public.

Our Mission - To cultivate classically trained, life long learners, committed to the Lordship of Jesus Christ, who will enrich their community and God's kingdom.

NOTICE OF PROPOSED BY-LAWS AMENDMENT

Upon further consideration of the amendments made to Article III, Sections 2 and 3 on April 24, 2007, the CPLS Board of Directors directed the Bylaws Committee to review the amendments made and to consider modifications to make the Nominating Committee process more flexible. CPLS families, faculty, and staff are invited to submit written comments regarding these proposed amendments to board@cpls.org by January 21, 2008.

You are further notified that at its meeting on January 22, 2008, the CPLS Board of Directors intends to vote upon the following amendments to Article III of the CPLS Bylaws, subject to any written comments:

Section 2. Number and Qualification of Directors.

(a)(1) The authorized number of directors of the corporation shall be no fewer than seven (7) and no more than nine (9).

(2) The Board's membership shall be composed so that directors represent at least three (3) different churches. Exceptions to this policy may be allowed by a majority vote.

(b)(1) Directors shall profess a personal relationship with Christ, live godly lifestyles, affirm the Statement of Faith set forth in the Constitution, feel called by God to serve as directors, be deeply conscious of their responsibility before God, and be committed to the principles of classical Christian education.

Directors shall be individuals whose lives make them worthy of imitation and hence appropriate role models for students. Directors shall demonstrate that they possess the spiritual gifts, the heart, the abilities, the character, and the life experiences that make them suitable for service as a member of the Board of Directors.

(2) Directors shall adhere to these qualifications throughout their tenure on the Board.

(3) All school children of directors shall attend the School. Exceptions to this policy may be allowed by a majority vote of all directors.

~~Directors shall adhere to these qualifications throughout their tenure on the Board.~~

(c) Full-time employees of the School shall not serve as directors. Part-time employees and spouses of full-time employees may serve as directors but shall abstain from voting on all issues that may raise an appearance of impropriety or conflict of interest. (Amended: September 21, 2004; April 24, 2007; _____.)

NOTICE OF PROPOSED BY-LAWS AMENDMENT (CONTINUED)

Section 3. Election and Term of Office.

(a) Each director shall serve on the Board for a term of three (3) years unless such service is terminated by resignation, death, or removal. Upon Board approval, a director may take a leave of absence of up to one year without forfeiting his seat or altering his term. A director may be renominated to serve a second consecutive term. After serving a second consecutive full three-year term on the Board, the director shall step down from service for at least one full year before again being eligible for election to the Board. Terms of service on the Board shall be staggered so that no more than three directors will complete their term of service in any given year.

(b) Nomination and renomination of Board candidates shall be made by a seven-member Nominating Committee composed of not more than three (3) currently serving Board directors and not less than three (3) non-Board parents of students currently enrolled in the school. ~~By November 30,~~ The Nominating Committee shall notify faculty, staff, and families of enrolled students that Board positions are open and that the committee will solicit and accept nominee applications until ~~January 15~~ the third Friday in January. The Nominating Committee shall make every effort to solicit qualified applicants who have different church affiliations, ages of children, personalities, and skills.

(c) ~~At the close of the nomination period,~~ The Nominating Committee shall review the nominee applications and interview eligible Board candidates to determine interest, qualifications, and suitability for Board membership. By the regular March 4 board meeting, the Nominating Committee shall submit to the Board a formal report that includes the names of all qualified applicants ~~including~~ with a recommendation of the nominee(s) for the open position(s). All candidates shall meet the qualifications for Board members established in these Bylaws. ~~Following the formal report of the Nominating Committee at~~ No later than the May annual meeting, the Board by a majority vote shall elect directors, if any at all, from the names the Nominating Committee submits. Nominations from the floor shall not be permitted. (Amended: September 21, 2004; October 26, 2004; April 24, 2007; _____.)

LION'S ROAR

Recognize anyone you know? CPLS Alumni and friends gathered on Friday, December 21st to reconnect and visit with friends. Over 70 alumni attended the event coming from as far away as California, New York and Australia. The annual alumni vs varsity volleyball and basketball games were greatly entertaining, but the results are being withheld to protect the embarrassed.

Cair Paravel Latin School Lions Share Program

Program rules and guidelines

- 1) All certificate orders must be accompanied by a check or money order made payable to CPLS. Lions Share certificate payments are not tax deductible because you receive dollar for dollar value.
- 2) If your check is returned because of non-sufficient funds (NSF), you will be charged a $30 fee payable to CPLS. After two NSF checks are tendered on your account, your Lions Share ordering privileges will be limited to money order only.
- 3) Lions Share certificates are purchased on your behalf, and are not returnable.
- 4) When you pick up or receive your certificates, open your order and verify its accuracy. In the unlikely event you should find a discrepancy in your order, please contact Shirley Price, Lions Share coordinator, within seven days.
- 5) Certificates are the same as cash, and should be handled accordingly. CPLS will not be responsible for certificates that are lost, stolen or misplaced while in your possession.
- 6) You must sign a WAIVER OF RESPONSIBILITY form before certificates will be mailed to you or released with your child. These forms will be kept on file, and CPLS accepts no responsibility for certificates delivered in this manner.
